

Ten Commandments of Good Campers

1. You shall be on time for all activities.
2. You shall be neat and orderly and keep your cabin area clean and enter other people's cabins only by permission.
3. You shall be a good sport and be kind and patient toward others.
4. You shall stay in the area designated for RA Camp use and go hiking only with your counselor where allowed.
5. You shall keep others as well as yourself, safe and free from harm. Wear shoes at all times outside your cabin.
6. You shall be courteous to your counselor at all times by obeying his instructions and letting him know where you are.
7. You shall be in bed and quiet promptly at lights out. Shower and wear clean clothes each day.
8. You shall not leave camp without the permission of your counselor and the camp director. Obey all those in charge.
9. You shall be a good listener during worship, mission study, Bible study, and at all other teaching times.
- 10. *And you shall obey the other nine.
